ANGLICAN AID has written, with the financial year soon ending, to request tax-deductible gifts to their 2022 GRACE ABOUNDING APPEAL. They ask for help with, among other efforts, the Syrian displacement crisis. They speak of their long-term relationships with Christian partners such as the Good Shepherd School in Lebanon, Lebanon being a destination to which more than 1-1/2 million Syrian refugees have fled.

“Anglican Aid is currently active through 148 local churches and Christian organisations in 40 countries throughout Africa, Asia, Latin America, the Middle East and beyond. We need your support to continue to strengthen churches, transform communities and see the grace of God overflowing to the most needy in our world.”

BEWARE OF SCAMS

Last week and this week, we have heard of parishioners who have been defrauded by telephone and on-line scammers. One lost a large amount of money; another lost a very large amount. These con artists pretend to be representatives of the telephone company, a bank, the tax office or some government department. Be suspicious of unexpected claims that you owe back taxes or a traffic infringement penalty, warnings that you will not be able to use the Internet unless you purchase a new modem from them, news that your accounts have been charged or hacked, or messages that you have a package requiring further fees to be delivered. Sometimes the crisis the scammers present may seem possible or reasonable, and they will make it seem urgent, but you might run the situation past a trusted relative or friend. Meg McDonald has shared a scam / phishing document (has been e-mailed, will be mailed). Be suspicious. Be careful. Be safe.
