Parish Notices

The Op Shop is very much in need of sale day helpers, setting up from 7:30AM and packing up at noon. Sales are held two Saturday mornings a month; the next sale days are 8 June, 29 June and 13 July. See Jan McLachlan at church, e-mail her at janmclachlan@bigpond.com or just turn up on a sale day.

The pew bibles, introduced last Sunday, may, after use, be left in the pews for the next worship service.

Intercessions by parishioners have returned to the 9:30AM service. Names will be listed on the back page of the pew bulletin, week by week, as are the sidesmen and lesson readers.

The King's Birthday Evensong is today, 9 June at 4:00PM with our choir in residence, The Cathedral Singers. Much music by romantic English composer, Sir Charles Villiers Stanford will be sung, with his responses, setting of Psalm 150, and his majestic canticle setting in C major featuring. The anthem will be the coronation anthem, The King shall rejoice by George Frideric Handel. All are welcome.

The ladies who play Mahjong once a month in our Crypt have a good time and extend the invitation for others, whether experienced, new or somewhere in-between to join them. The next get-together is Friday, 21 June, from 1:00PM.

"It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas" at the Op Shop. The Op Shop crew finds themselves with so many Christmas decorations, so much Christmas tableware, that they have declared a "Christmas in July" theme for their 29 June sale. Come see and perhaps expand your Christmas collection. If any items remain, the 13 July sale will also have the "Christmas in July" theme.

Prayer requests may be dropped into the clear and locked acrylic box in the narthex, to be read and prayed for by our Rector. Names for the prayer list may be submitted this way and/or sent to the church secretary.
